NUMBER 18

SBA MEETING B. A. Forrester, president of Enterprise Junior College, is shown as he introduces Mr. Paul Rowe Brunson, Regional Director of the Small Business Administration in Birmingham, at a meeting held at the college. Also on the program was Congressman George Andrews of the third Congressional District. Andrews said he is making an attempt to take the story of the SBA to every county in his district.

Brunson told the group of about eighty local businessmen, "Coffee County, like Alabama and the entire nation, is growing by leaps and bounds and there is no reason why it should not obtain the benefits offered by the SBA."

Draft Questions Answered State Director Hugh J. Caldwell, Jr., said recently that Alabama Selective Service had received many queries from under-graduate college students asking if they are eligible for Class I-S (C) to complete their academic years.

"The answer to this is 'yes,'" Caldwell said. "Any registrant who while satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction at a college, university or similar institution of learning is ordered to report for induction, is eligible for I-S (C) classification. However, he should go to the nearest local board of the Selective Service System without delay and register. He should follow this as soon as possible with a letter to his Local Board of jurisdiction explaining the delay."

This was the first community water system started in Coffee County as was financed by the Farmers Home Administration.

All Trailers Must Have License Tag

Title 51, Sects. 692, 697 and 703, Code of Alabama 1940, was amended, in a recent session of the legislature, relative to license and registration on motor vehicles and trailers.

The paragraph relative to Utility Trailers is as follows:

"Utility Trailers" means a trailer primarily designed to be drawn by a passenger car or pickup truck, including luggage trailers, folding or collapsible camping trailers, and other small trailers of similar size and function, but shall not include boat trailers.

Under the above statement all utility trailers, except boat trailers should be tagged.

Locklear, principal, gave a short talk based on an article, "Schoolboard Man Gets Inside Story," written by a schoolboard member who did substitute teaching in cognito, and learned the many endless duties of a teacher, plus teaching.

The third grade won a new book because they had more parents than any other grade.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 12, at 7:00 o'clock. All Goodman patrons are urged to attend. A program featuring the Christmas Story will be given by Goodman Students.

Shrub Planting Takes Skill

There's more to planting a shrub than meets the eye—if you want to give the new plant a good start.

Planting early will give the shrub a chance to become well established before severe cold weather, says Harold Thornhill, Extension ornamental horticulturist. And the earlier you shop for new shrubs, the better choice you'll have. As the season progresses, good plants may be scarce.

Thornhill recommends the following method for planting shrubs:

1. Dig the hole twice the diameter of the ball of soil, and at least six inches deeper than the depth of the ball.

2. Fill the bottom of the hole with six inches of good soil or enough to raise

2. Fill the bottom of the hole with six inches of good soil or enough to raise the plant to ground level.

3. Place the plant in the hole. Adjust it to correct position and depth by adding or removing soil.

4. Fill the hole half full of good soil.

5. Fill the hole with water. Allow it to soak into the soil (this settles soil around the root system). Refill the hole with water. 6. Displace second filling of water with soil.

7. Build a terrace around the outer edge of the hole.

8. Water again to compact the soil and settle the soil around the roots.

9. Mulch with pine straw, hay, well rotted sawdust or peat moss.

Water newly set plants thoroughly (don't just sprinkle) at least once a week until sufficient rainfall occurs.

Tea Compliments Recent Bride

The home of Mrs. T. K. Dorsey was the setting for a tea to compliment the recent bride, Mrs. Lewey Stephens III, a recent bride.

Hostesses with Mrs. Dorsey were Mrs. Robert Marsh, Mrs. Oliver Williams, and Mrs. Neal Hurto. Guests were greeted by Master George Dorsey and were presented to the receiving line by Mrs. Dorsey. Receiving with the honoree were Mrs. Lewey Stephens Jr., mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. E.W. Line of Rome, Ga., grandmother of the bridegroom.

For the occasion, the bride was attired in a yellow lace tent dress and her corsage was yellow and white Empress camellias.

Miss Dianne Bryan of Opp, sister of the bride, registered the guests at a table holding an arrangement of bridal flowers topped with a miniature bride and surrounded by burning white tapers. She was assisted by Miss Susie Parrish of Opp.

The tea table, covered in white linen, held silver appointments. A massive cascading arrangement of pink, red, and white camellias towered above the punch bowl and smaller arrangements of the same flowers cascaded the corners of the table. The tea delicacies blended with the chosen colors.

Mrs. V.D. McCreary, Miss Lucia Stephens, Miss Virginia Stephens, and Miss Lynn Marsh assisted in serving. Masters John Stephens and Mike Williams assisted the guests as they left. Approximately 70 guests called.

The bride is the former Miss Sharon Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bryan of Birmingham, formerly of Opp, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewey Stephens Jr. They were married on September 8 and are now residing in Tuscaloosa.

Miss Sue Griffin registered the guests at a table adorned with a miniature arrangement of white butter mums and pink roses. In the gift rooms were Mrs. Hazel Capps, Mrs. Betty Boothe, and Miss McCall.

Arrangements of white and pink mums were placed throughout the party rooms. The honoree's table was covered with white lace over a pastel green and pink carnations and delicate greenery encircled the punch bowl.

Serving the party dainties which carried out the chosen color scheme were Mrs. Hanchey and Miss Lattane Clark.

For the occasion, the honoree, an attractive brunette, chose a fall dress of burnt orange.

BLOCKING PRACTICE is relayed by the Elba Tiger linemen in preparation for the 14th annual Lions Bowl tilt to be held Wednesday night, November 22. Coaching the linemen is Assistant Coach Gary Powell who has been very valuable to the Elba Tiger's success, according to Head Coach Leon Akins.

Akins is quick to point out the able assistance of Powell each time football fans start paying compliments to Akins and the boys. He says "without taking anything away from a fine group of boys, I think Coach Powell has done a good job."

SHORT AND SWEET

The winds of change are blowing backwards through the fashion world... back that is, to frills and femininity, in their dress... but in the multicolored cultured pearls complete with pearls. In fact, most unusual manner. There set in giant hoops for the ears.

THE RACE IS ON The Annual Sadie Hawkins day race at Elba High School was carried in high tradition recently. The boys were handily defeated by the girls and the girls had to catch them and drag them back across the starting line. Some made but many failed to complete their mission before the final whistle was blown.

Folsom Builds Floating Dream Castle

Bobby Folsom of Columbus, Ga., son of City Councilman and Mrs. Robert Folsom of Elba, built this houseboat in odd hours for the fun of river recreation in comfort. It is painted in shades of blue. Boaters come in all varieties around riverfront Columbus and so do their boats.

Bob Folsom and his boat Voodoo are a case in point. How many navigators have been to the South Pole, as Folsom has? How many athletes ever turned down a football scholarship to Bear Bryant's University of Alabama, as Folsom did? How many men have so illustrious an uncle as James E. "Big Jim" Folsom, former Governor of Alabama? And how many fellows spend two years building a houseboat, winding up with a floating dream castle valued at $30,000 or more?

Some of the magic lies in the fact that Folsom started out with no boat-building skills to speak of. "No, this was a learning-by-doing project," he said. "If I made a mistake, I just backed up and corrected it."

To construct a houseboat 14 feet wide, 40 feet long, weighing about 6,000 pounds and having such comforts of home as air conditioning, central heating, space to sleep eight people, refrigerator, shower bath, television and Hi-Fi music piped to all decks and quarters, takes some doing.

Folsom started picking up the ability in his hometown of Elba, on the Pea River, which "down-homes" content is an asset in itself.

"Getting out of high school, I faced a choice between taking a football scholarship to Alabama or going to Naval ROTC. I took the Navy and have never regretted it. This put him on the Auburn University campus and from this school he graduated in Industrial Management in 1959. For the scholarship aid, he owed the U.S. Navy the next three years. The Navy rewarded him with a seven-month cruise aboard a supply ship to Antarctica in 1959-60, duty in the Caribbean and Mediterranean Seas and the rank of Lieutenant (JG) for his service as a navigator.

A ham radio operator-KAWT-Folsom has a powerful as the average radio broadcasting station in Columbus. "He has a hook-bean and Mediterranean Seas and the rank of Lieutenant (JG) for his service as a navigator."

Hunters-- Look Again Before Firing

This article is aimed directly at the hundreds of thousands of hunters who are taking to the fields and woods this fall in search of game.

Before you pull the trigger, know what you're firing at.

Sparring arms, from a single-shot 22 caliber rifle to a heavy big game weapon to a fast-loading automatic scattergun, are designed to kill birds and animals. They also can kill or wound humans.

Each fall several hundred hunters return from fall outings via hearse. Thousands of others return with a load of bird shot or a rifle bullet to be dug out. Behind almost every hunting accident is one cause: carelessness.

The hunter who blazes away at everything that moves runs a big risk of bagging a fellow hunter.

Never cross over or through a fence or climb a tree with a loaded gun. It might fall and discharge. Unload first and reload after crossing. Don't shoot at a hard, flat surface. Ricocheting bullets can carry long distances with killing power.

Even a small bore rifle has considerable range. Know where your bullet will stop before pulling the trigger.

Keep guns away from children. Never leave a weapon unattended without unloading it. Store guns and ammunition beyond reach of youngsters, preferably under lock and key.

Always carry a gun so that you can control the direction of the muzzle even if you stumble. Keep the safety catch on until ready to shoot. Always be sure the barrel is clear of obstructions. A barrel clogged with mud or snow may burst.

Guns and alcohol don't mix. If you like a nip around camp, wait until you're through hunting for the day and all weapons are unloaded and cased.

Treat guns with respect at all times. They may be loaded, despite all precautions. Thus never point a weapon at someone unless you plan to shoot it.

4-H CLUB NOTES

Our vice president, Nickie Sexton, introduced the program on "Train Yourself to Eat a Good Breakfast" given by Mrs. Virginia S. Dykes.

It was on "Train Yourself to Eat a Good Breakfast." In it we learned what you should eat for breakfast, such as milk, meat, and fruits. We also selected what projects we want to take. The meeting was adjourned until next month.

TALENT WINNER in the recent Jr. Miss Pageant was Miss Anella Sasser. She performed on the piano and guitar. Runner-up were Miss Pam Vaughan and Miss Suzanne Prior, both girls also performing on the piano.

TWIRP WEEK KING AND QUEEN were crowned recently by student council president, David Stokes. They were Cheryl Devane and Jerome Ward. The crowning took place on the football field prior to the annual Sadie Hawkins Day race.

Coastal Bermuda Gaining

The popularity of Coastal bermudagrass continues to climb in Alabama, with almost half of the one-million acre goal now being met. But too often livestock men buy other equipment. But too often they don't get the best. Coffee County farmers have the advantage of getting an early start toward reaching the state's goal, says O. N. Andrews, Extension Service agronomist by planting in December, weather permitting.

"I locate a source of sprigs now," Andrews tells new growers. "Select your fields to plant, take soil samples, apply lime where needed, prepare the land and get ready for planting."

FARM-CITY WEEK This week is being observed as Farm-City Week throughout Alabama. A special program was held last week in New Brockton by the Coffee County Farm Bureau officers and Farm-City Week observances last week where about one hundred town and rural people met.

I think we have a mutual understanding between the town and rural folks in Coffee County. Phillip Martin, president of the Coffee County Farm Bureau, pointed this out in his comments at the Farm Bureau sponsored Farm-City Week observances last week where about one hundred town and rural people met.

FORAGE CROPS Lynn W. Burton of the Tifton, Georgia, Experiment Station in talking recently about Coastal bermudagrass said that production is carried out by planting of improved varieties and the greatly increased use of fertilizer to increase yields. ## COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

BY SARA E. HUTCHINSON

RICE I have always been curious about the taste of wild rice, but because of its price I've never bought any. The truth about wild rice, I learned recently, is that it isn't rice at all. It is the seed of a wild grass. Our biggest supplier for this wild grass is from Canada.

Wild rice prices fluctuate according to good or bad weather for the harvest season and how well the grass grew during the growing season.

her If this happens to you, When frozen food thaws, it isn't always necessary to discard it. Thawing impairs color, flavor and texture but no health hazard is involved if the temperature of the food has not risen above ordinary refrigerator temperature—about 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

If partially thawed food has acceptable odor, texture and color, there may be enough quality left to justify refreezing.

VOLUME 70

ELBA, ALABAMA 36323, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1967

NUMBER 19

ELBA QUARTERBACK Johnny Sharpless (No. 11) salvages a broken play to start the scoring early in the first quarter as Elba defeated the Slocomb Red Taps 46-20 in the 14th annual Lions Bowl Wednesday, November 22. Brice Paul (No. 45) made one of the key blocks that allowed Sharpless to score.

Tigers Chalk Up Sweet Win, 46 - 20

The Elba Tigers scored half while racking up 26 points themselves. Quarterback Johnny Sharpless was the leading scorer for the Tigers with three but he is hasty to add that two of his were after his teammates had moved the ball within one or two yards of the goal line. Others scoring for Elba were David Stokes, Donnie Holley, Jerome Ward and Larry Grantham. Elba also scored when Brice Paul caught the Red Top quarterback in the end zone and grounded him for a safety.

The program will be by choral groups composed of 5th and 6th grades with a Christmas theme. They are under the direction of Mrs. Elba Kate Hamm and Mrs. Willen McCurley.

The Elba PTA will meet on Tuesday night, December 5th at 7:15 p.m., at the Elba Elementary School.

Elba's Tommy Dewberry and Jerome Ward each recovered Slocomb fumbles that led to scores for the Tigers.

In the final quarter scoring by the Elba team had become a matter-of-fact thing and team members were reminding the coach of "whose time it was to score" and in the last minute someone remembered that Larry Grantham had not scored so quarterback Sharpless threw a pass while trapped himself and Grantham ran through almost the entire Slocomb defense to reach paydirt.

David Stokes was named Elba's Outstanding Player of the game by the Lions Bowl officials after a close race with Jerome Ward. Both gained yardage at will through the Red Top defense.

Elba scored a total of 476 while Slocomb was held to 167.

The South Alabama town of Brundidge operates its own local electric distribution system bringing in revenue for city projects which otherwise would have to be paid for by increased local taxes or some other means of financing.

Alabama Electric is an Andalusia-based generation and transmission company which supplies wholesale power for use by some half a million people in Northwest Florida, a $40 million dollar complex in the midst of the two-year construction job on a new $12 million steam generation plant on the Tomlinson River which will provide a source of expanded power to homes, businesses and industries in the region.

Mrs. Johnston is the only woman mayor in the Wiregrass area and one of four in Alabama.

This building project consist of 15 additional rooms, all private, one additional nursing station, double the size of the X-Ray facilities and lab, expand kitchen by one third and add a laundry in the basement.

When the Elba Hospital started qualifying for this additional money, only 9 rooms were on the allotment for Coffee County. The state plan was later revised and Coffee's needs estimated at 15 and all those beds were allocated to Elba due to the overwhelming demand at the local hospital for rooms. This overall plan is used to divide the Hill-Burton funds within the state to the places that need them most.

These additional hospital beds should help the local authorities in efforts to secure additional doctors in Elba.

Construction approval of the proposed $375,000 Elba Hospital annex by the State Board of Health was announced November 23 by Dr. Ira L. Myers, health officer.

Project approval was granted at the board's November 15 meeting in Montgomery, pending release of federal funds by U.S. Public Health Service under provisions of the Hill-Burton Act. Notification of federal funding for Alabama totaling $7,409,659 was received November 21.

Funds with which to construct the Elba facility were approved as follows: $15,000 local funds; $225,000 federal funds. Thirteen other facilities throughout the state were approved for construction or modernization.

Excellence in scholarship, spirit and service has won for Jo Ann Brazelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brazelton of Coffee County, a $4,000.00 General Obligation bond issue for acquisition, construction, and improvement of State Park facilities. A tax of 1¢ per package on cigarettes is levied to finance the bond issue. If voters do not ratify the amendment, the proceeds from the proceeds of a 2¢ per cigarette tax will be expended on recommendation of the Director of Conservation and approval of the Governor.

Shots Planned In Afternoons At Health Office

The Coffee County Health Department announces that the immunization clinics which are held each Wednesday, will be in the afternoon only, during the months of December, January and February. Clinic hours will be from 1:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

This is being done because less immunizations are given during these months. One-half day clinics will allow public health personnel to use their time to better advantage.

Full day clinics will be resumed March 1, 1968.

State Will Collect Tax For Elba

The City of Elba has passed an ordinance that allows the State of Alabama to collect the City sales tax at the time of collecting the state's portion of the current 5¢ sales tax. This is not an additional tax but will help the city get the amount required by present law. Several city officials have expressed a belief that some businesses have not been paying the City the full one percent tax as they should.

FEEDER PIGS TOP $1 MILLION

With November and December sales yet to be reported, Linton predicted that total sales may reach $1.25 million. Sales last year totaled $918,759.

Linton attributed the success of the sales to increased interest by producers who specialize in feeder pig production.

The specialist also announced that the Central Alabama Feeder Pig Association at Clanton will open for business in early 1968.

Legion Party Set Saturday

Culver Post 42 of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas party this Saturday night at the Elba Recreation Center. All members are urged to attend.

All children are urged to bring small gifts to place under the tree and adults are asked to bring gifts to be donated to the Veterans hospital.
